CORONACH.

BY SIR WALTER SCOTT.

He is gone on the mountain.
He is lost to the forest,
Like a summer-dried fountain.
When our need was the sorest,
The font, reappearing,
From the rain-drops shall borrow,
But to us comes no cheering.
To Duncan no morrow!
The hand of the reaper
Takes the ears that are hoary,
But the voice of the weeper
Wails manhood in glory;
The autumn winds rushing,
Wait the leaves that are scarest,
But our flower was in flushing
When blithing was nearest.
Fleet foot on the corrie,
Sage counsel inumber,
Red hand in the foray,
How sound is thy slumber!
Like the dew on the mountain,
Like the foam on the river,
Like the bubble on the fountain,
Thou art gone, and forever!

THE BROOKLYN TRIAL.

THAT NEW EVIDENCE.

The Peeping Upholsterers Swear to Their Story—Reopening of the Beecher Case Probable.

The HERALD says that the statements it published yesterday of the new evidence in the Beecher trial were yesterday sworn to by the upholsterers. Price and Loader; and also that Judge Fullerton says the case will have to be reopened and this evidence introduced. Mr. Beach is also quoted to the same effect.

A Type-setters Obituary.

Our brother, Mr. John Harlan, is dead. His last letter is distributed, his case is emptied, his stick is full, the last line is spaced out, and the clicking of the type is no more heard by his hand. A paragraph is made, a period put in, his last proof is taken, his galley cleared. His form is made up, and lies upon the cold imposing-stone, silent, lifeless. His faults are set in diamond, and pied, so no more proofs can be taken. His virtues are set in six-line pica, colored, framed, and hung on the walls of memory, never to be forgotten. Be warned and be ready. Correct your proof.

Daring act of a Girl.

Cleveland, O., June 13.—Nineteen prisoners escaped from the County Jail this morning through the instrumentality of a young girl who was working out a fine in the jailer's family. She procured the key while the family were in another part of the building and unlocked the doors, letting nineteen prisoners out before it was discovered that the door was open. Five of the prisoners were recaptured.

What is Life?

Life is a summer day,
The morn serenely bright;
We hail with joy each gilded ray,
Unmindful of the night;
But storm and tempests intervene
Ere Evening drops her sable screen.
Life is the rolling year:
Its vernal blossoms shoot,
And Summer's genial atmosphere
Matures autumnal fruit;
But many fruits unripened fall,
And hoary Winter sweeps them all.

Life is the parting bill
In our incipient years,
Still widening and enlarging still Adown this vale of tears;
At length it mingles with the sea,
That "vastly deep," Eternity.

Life is that ocean wide
Where many millions sail,
Tossed to and fro by wind and tide,
The sport of every gale;
Their fragile barks the brakers court
And few attain the wished-for port.

Life is the allotted space
That God to man has given,
Where erring mortals, by his grace,
May find their way to Heaven:
It is the time for man to prove
His fitness for a world of love.

Gold in Paying Quantities.

OMAHA, Neb., June 22.—The following despatch has just been received from Colonel R. I. Dodge, who is in command of the escort to Professor Jenney's Black Hills Exploring Expedition;

HARNEY'S PEAK, June 19.

Gold has been found in paying quantities on French Creek. Custer's report has been confirmed in every particular.
The command is well and in fine condition. Private advices received here say that the command found 100 miners at work in Custer's Gulch taking out gold at the rate of from $5 to $25 a pan. The evidences are strong that there are many more miners in the country. The gold found is coarse and scaley, but easily found. Quartz mines are abundant, but no one has prospected them. No Indians were seen by the command. They are north of the Peak. —WORLD.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH!

We feel it our solemn duty to impress upon the minds of the citizens of this town, the lack of necessary preparations for celebrating the great and glorious Fourth, which is so near at hand.

Our little Cannon, which lost its under-pinning by the late fire, must be set upon a new one, and cartridges must be made for it; our Terribles must prepare for action: our Indians must sharpen their knives, and tighten their bows; and our pig must be greased.

Are we going to let the glorious Fourth of July pass unheeded, while nearly every town in the broad United States, is raising its voice in memory of the great and glorious day when our nation declared itself free from the gall-ing yoke of British dominion?

If there be a man in this broad town-ship, who has one drop of patriotic blood in his veins, let him feel that it is his duty, the duty he owes to his country, to step forward and join in the 99th anniversary of the day when our nation's liberty was declared.

Let there be no draw back. Let not this town be an exception. Why should we not celebrate as well as the rest? Is there any reason why we should set back on our haunches and let the for-ever glorious birthday of our nation, pass by without even greasing a Pig and turning him loose in the streets? We answer emphatically, No! Every man should raise his voice in memory of that wonderful event, which gave birth to a nation of freemen.

Stone Bridge.

The prospect brightens for a Stone bridge. The Commissioner of High-ways was in town Friday, and stated that he was now ready to let the job for its construction. It has not transpired who is to be the contractor, but suppose it is to be the man who will build a good Stone Bridge the cheapest.

success, to be sure we did not have as much time at the bay as was anticipated, but it must be remembered that we had a very strong "head-wind" to run against going up. The ride on the water was

INDEPENDENCE ODE.

AN UNPUBLISHED POEM.

WRITTEN FIFTY YEARS AGO.

While our Eagle ascends to the zenith of glory,

And Tyranny shrinks to oblivions shade,

May the name of Columbia, swell the proud story.

In honor and true independence arrayed.

The stars of our Union, a bright constellation,

From yon pointed spear resplendently shine.

The Stripes wave triumphant, the pride of our nation.

The badge of our freedom, the boon is divine.

From the regions of heaven, primeval ascended.

Our glorious liberty, and in her train,

The cherub of blest independence attended,

And arose on our country the day star of fame.

The fiat ascended in accents omnific, From regions immortal pronounced the decree.

All heaven illumed with radiance pacific In Columbia's dwelling that freedom shall be.

To-day we enjoy, and appreciate the blessing,

Exalted and Happy, United and Free,

All rights that are civil, and sacred possessing,

The off-spring and fruit, of our liberty tree.

The plow and the loom, our country shall nourish,

Our sons and our daughters, fair science refine,

By religion and law, shall our government flourish,

Till God shall abolish the empire of time.

With our hearts and hands in peace be united,

Maintain with devotion, the cause of mankind.

With our wives and our children and friends be delighted,

And also to the Savior of man be resigned,

May the hand that would rob us of liberty, wither,

The arm become nerveless and fall from the blade.

May Tyrants and Despots both perish together,

And fell superstition, retire to the shade.

Then all hail our Union, bright constellation,

May rainbows of glory encircle us around

Till worlds are dissolved and time shall expire.

And Angels shall summon the trumpet to sound.

OUR GREAT PREACHER.

A Meeting of Plymouth Pew Holders—

Beecher's salary increased to $100,000—Plymouth Church will spend millions in the defence of her pastor's innocence.

New York, July 7.—This evening a largely attended meeting of Plymouth pew holders was held in the lecture room.

The chairman Mr. J. B. Hutcheson, stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of considering the question of increasing Mr. Beecher's salary.

Mr. Henry W. Sage then offered a resolution to the effect that the salary of the pastor for the ensuing year be fixed at $100,000 instead of $20,000, which it had heretofore been. This was seconded by Rev. R. W. Ropes, after which R. W. Raymond made a long address, in which he censured the action of the press very strongly. Reporters he characterized as a perfect nuisance, and said that they had all suffered by being interviewed by representatives of the press of the country. Mr. S. B. White then delivered a brief and pertinent address in favor of the resolution. He said that, while the investigating committee were sitting,

Plymouth Church had made no effort to influence them in any way, so it had been all through the trial. They had made no move whatever towards influencing the jury or anybody else in Mr. Beecher's behalf. Their time had not come until tonight, "and now" said the speaker, "we will show to the world that Plymouth

Church can spend millions in the defence of her pastor's innocence, but not one dollar for blackmail or bribery." The resolution was then put to a vote and passed unanimously, there not being one dissenting voice in the house.

THE TAIT ORE BED.

It was a very warm day on the 7th of July, that we shouldered our pen, and, in company with a friend, started for the Tait ore bed. We intend to give our readers the benefit of what we saw.

The above named ore bed is situated about two miles from Hermon village, in a westerly direction. This mine was discovered some years ago, and has been worked at intervals ever since, but on account of small capital and inexperienced workmen it has never proved successful until the present season. It has recently been purchased by the Union Iron Company of Buffalo, N. Y., and they are fast developing it in a scientific manner. They have at present about 35 experienced miners in their employ. They are now sinking a new shaft about thirty rods from the old mine which has reached the depth of about fifty feet. Two drifts have been started directly opposite each other and about twenty feet from the surface, making in all, a drift nearly 200 feet long. The ore is drawn to the surface by a new engine, which they have lately purchased and which is run by Mr. Peter Downie, and Mr Wm. Roberts. The old mine is being worked very successfully, and they anticipate having a new engine if it continues to be as productive as at present. They are raising about 20 tons per day from the old mine, and as soon as they get the new shaft sunk to a proper depth, they have facilities for raising as much there. Mr. John Webb Jr., has the entire management of both mines, and he is thoroughly up to his business.

There has been a number of houses built by the company for the accommodation of the miners, and we are informed that several more are to be erected in August.

You would naturally expect when going to an ore bed to meet a set of rough, inferior, quarrelsome men; Not so here, they are mostly Cornishmen, and are jovial, goodnatured, gentlemanly and accommodating fellows.

We are very much indebted to Mr. Peter Downie for his kindness in showing us over the new mine, and giving us necessary information about it; also to gentlemanly Tom, for a like favor at the old mine.

On account of limited space, we are unable to dwell longer on this subject, but hope at some future time we may be able to give our readers an extended account of the mine and its workings.

IMAGINE the feelings of a certain Dry Goods clerk in this town last Sunday night, when a young lady politely informed him that she had other company home. He has since offered to bet two to one, she didn't say so.

EDSON A. CONANT has purchased the Drugs and Medicines formerly owned by Geo. A. Healey, and proposes to sail under his own flag. Ed. knows how to keep a drug store, and has the stamps and muscle to do it well. Give him a call.

THE Observer says professors of geology and bullwhackers direct from the Black Hills concur in saying there is gold out there, but the common red dirt of the country is so highly mixed with it that the accumulation of any reasonable pile would cost quite as much as it would come to.

THERE were two Canton boys made our town a visit a few days since, they were in a very seluberous condition, on account of which their horse was taken away from them by the constable, and they were invited to stay over night with us or walk home. We know not which plan they adopted, but, however, they put in an appearance the next morning and their horse was returned to them. They immediately left town in a very quiet manner.

E. E. BROWN, P. M.

A BIRDS-EYE VIEW of the great celebration of the 4th of July in Hermon.

The day was ushered in by the perpetration of a dastardly outrage on our citizens, in the way of changing signs, hanging harnesses on the barber pole, putting boxes in front of doors &c., probably the work of some mischievous little patriot.

At 7 o'clock in the morning a grand salute of fire-crackers took place, then several foot races, then a wheelbarrow race, then a foot race, then another foot race, then a tub race, then a sack race, then another sack race, then another foot race, and so on all through the day.

At 8 p. m., a grand torch wagon drawn by two horses and containing about 25 young patriots, paraded the principal streets. The whole was concluded by a blood curdling representation of the Southern Rebellion.

HIDDEN WORDS.

I have pondered Love's Lexicon over,
And volumes of minstrelsy
In vain, for I cannot discover
One word dear enough for thee;
Oh, had I foud words, never spoken
By poet or lover before;
Some sweet and immaculate token
Revealing Love's mystic lore.

I'd write thee a musical sonnet,
A song for thy light guitar,
With the breath of the flowers upon it,
And bright as Love's vestal star;
In the bower of royal roses,
Where zephyrs enamored stay,
I'd linger as twilight closes,
To hear the impassioned lay.

But, alas! in my vain endeavor,
The wearisome days go by,
And the words I am grasping ever,
Expire in the breath of a sigh;
Therefore, is the love unspoken,
That has filled my heart so long;
And silent—a dream unbroken—
Is the poet's unwritten song.

From Petersons Magazine for August.

THE COLLEGE REGATTA.

CORNELL VICTORIOUS!

At last the annual boating contest has come off; and Cornell, the youngest of our Universities, has been declared the winner. Never before on this continent did a boat-race so command public attention. For weeks ahead, it was the principal topic of conversation; and in betting circles large sums were staked on the result. When the day arrived expectation stood on tiptoe, and business was partially suspended. As was expected, Saratoga had become the centre of unusual attraction. The hotels were crowded; the boarding houses, larger and smaller, were literally besieged with applicants; and every available sleeping-place was turned to account. Never perhaps was the neighborhood of the Springs so gay. It presented many of the aspects of Rome during the carnival season. The scene at the lake was brilliant and fascinating on the extreme. All "The crowded shore with exclamations all, Part to behold and part to prove their skill." It recalled the memory of the Arabian Nights. It seemed the realization of some glorious dream. Youth and beauty, the luxuries of wealth, the graces and refinements of culture, the elegant devices of fashion—all were there; and on the burnished waters of the lake below, there were exhibited specimens of well-developed manhood, as noble as ever in ancient Elis contested for the prize.

The contest proved worthy of the interest which it had created, worthy of the distinguished crowd which had assembled to witness it; and it reflected the highest credit on the contestants themselves, alike on those who failed and on those who won the prize. Harvard and Yale and Columbia, and others of the older Universities, did their best; but, as we hinted in these columns last week, pluck and muscle were found where they were less expected; and no amount of skill or effort could wrest the honors from the well-trained, well-practiced, spirited young oarsmen of Cayuga Lake. The triumph of Cornell on Wednesday was rendered all the more conspicuous by the success of her Freshmen the day before.

But a few years ago, the name of Cornell was unknown among our seats of learning. The place where it stands was part of the primitive wilderness; and at a period not yet far removed from us it was still the headquarters and home of the dominant Iroquois. Last year Cornell was not free from that rawness which is naturally enough supposed to be inseparable from youth and inexperience; and although she did so well as to make not a few warm friends, she gave no evidence sufficient to justify the hope that she would this year distance all her competitors. To be defeated by so young and raw a rival must have been somewhat humiliating to the pride of the older colleges, such as Harvard and Yale and Columbia and Brown and Princeton; but they all did so well, and so nearly approached their possible best, that but small occasion is left for regret or complaint. It was a brave and spirited contest; and the race by universal consent was fairly won. Cornell University has good cause to be proud of its laurels; and its success on this occasion has justified the generous self-sacrifice and noble, patriotic ambition of its founder.—FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPER.

HERMON VILLAGE.

It is just three months ago yesterday that the abhorred fire fiend visited our little village, and with such marked result. Nearly every business place in town was burned to ashes, but three months have wrought a considerable change in the appearance of the burnt district. The first store erected after the fire, was Mr. E. E. Brown's, the lower part of which is now occupied by Spalding & Brown as a dry goods store, and the upper part by Mrs. A. W. Weeks as millinery shop. The next two stores were built by Mr. C. P. Wood, one of which is now occupied by Dr. O. Bliss as a dentist office, the other by himself as a butcher shop. The above named stores are the only ones now occupied, with the exceptions of the rooms over C. H. Little's store, the front room of which is used by H. S. Ladd as a tailor shop, and the rear rooms by us as a printing office; the lower part is nearly finished and Chas. expects to move in about the 1st of August. S. H. Ladd is building a fine store next to C. H. Little's which he has got under good headway. Green & Babcock are erecting two very fine stores which are well on the road to completion. C. P. Wood having traded his two stores for another building lot, is now erecting another store on his new site. Mr. W. A. Leonard has a store started.

All of the above named buildings are to be bricked up in front, and handsomely decorated with water-table window-caps and window-sills from the Hammond quarry.

The late residence of Mrs. Nichols having been destroyed by the fire, the lot was cut into store lots and as all of the other buildings on that side of the street were burned, it afforded a chance for a rearrangement of the village plot. A lane extending from Main street to Maple, in rear of the store lots was projected and partly carried through, but unfortunately for the public good, unexpected opposition was met, and the lane now only extends from Maple street to the Easterly side of S. H. Ladd's store lot. Childs & Matteson, E. G. Seymour, E. A. Conant, and D. S. Lynde, are going to erect brick buildings as soon as Mr. E. G. Seymour can make the brick.

We think, that, though the individual loss was great, the general appearance of our town will be greatly improved, and we feel confident, if the surrounding community will patronize "home trade" rather than go to other towns, that our little village will soon regain its long standing reputation of being the liveliest, neatest, and prettiest little town in northern New York.

H. S. LADD has rented the front room over Chas. Little's new store, for a tailor shop, and he is now prepared to do any kind of work in his line on short notice.

RICH MAN behold the good work you can do in this world. See Ezra Cornell. He founded a college, and now it has won a boat-race. Rich man, go and do likewise.

WE HAVE removed our office to our rooms over Chas. Little's new store, where we would be pleased to see each and all, both old and young who will favor us with a call.

THE LATEST THING OUT in the way of visiting and address cards, are Chocolate Tinted Bristol. They may be had at this office, and we have also a fine assortment of snow-flake, Repp Bristol. Marble &c., very cheap.

IF YOU have any painting to do, it will pay you to get Messrs Davis & Green to do it. In nicety, quickness, and neatness, they far excel anyone we have previously seen. For sample of work see Charles Little's new store.

IT MAY NOT BE generally known that Jacob Bechhold has as fine a stock of goods as can be found in any country town, and he is going to sell them at greatly reduced prices for the next thirty days, preparatory to filling up his new store in B. Vanatter's new building.

HERE is a poetical specimen from the OBSERVER which it might be well for the business men of Hermon to peruse:

Don't let your angry passions rise
Because your neighbors advertise,
And draw away the dimes;
But boldly do as they have done,
Pursue the course they have begun,
And drive away dull times.

THERE is sure to be a gate-post panic next month for August will have two moons, one on the 1st, and one on the 30th of the month. This is a very unusual thing it has not occurred since 1858, and then a single cedar post was known to sell as high as 90 cents. To fathers who have marriageable daughters, we would say, beware.

PERSONAL.—Mr. M. A. Loop formerly of this place, now of Ogdensburg made us a call on Monday last. He is looking fine.

HEAVY FAILURE.—Duncan, Sherman & Co. Bankers, in New York, made an assignment yesterday. Gold immediately rose to 116 5-8 in consequence, then fell to 114 1-4.

BY THE STREAM.

BY ALICE D. BROWN.

Underneath the spreading maples,
Where the placid waters flow,
Ever breathing dreamy music,
There we wandered, long ago;
Summer's skies of cloudless azure,
Glimmered through the waving trees,
And the flowers that fringed the streamlet
Wafted sonnets on every breeze.

With a lover's proud devotion,
Thou, upon its margin green,
Crowded my brow with woodland roses,
Hailing me thy chosen queen?
When the moonlight, pale and silvery,
Fell upon the quiet stream,
By its mossy banks we lingered,
Wrapped in love's entrancing dream.

When the leaves of gold and crimson,
Rustled underneath our feet,
By the murmuring stream, I heard thee,
All those burning vows repeat;
Autumn's brilliant glories faded,
And I wander now alone,
But forevermore there cometh
Memories of pleasures flown.

Yet the past so bright and rosy,
Wakens sweetest thoughts of thee,
While thy heart, those days recalling,
Ever fondly turns to me;
In my visions of the future,
Care and sorrow have no part—
While I know that THOU art constant,
Summer blooms within my heart.

Breezes round my cottage sighing,
Waft this orison o'er the sea—
May the moments rolling onward,
Bring my loved one back to me!
When the woodland birds returning,
Sing their sweet melodious lays,
By the streamlet may we wander,
As we roved in former days!

Ex-President Johnson.

In an article far from indiscriminate eulogy the TRIBUNE thus presents the leading characteristics of ex-President Johnson:

That he was great no one will deny; his elevation to the Chief Magistracy of thirty million people attests the existence of certain elements of real greatness in his character. That he was also an exceptionally weak man in many directions, the history of his administration and the record of his public utterances bear unmistakable testimony. The striking feature in his public career was his unexpectedness. He rarely did what was most expected of him; almost invariably in an emergency he astonished, and many times startled us. In moments when we expected him to be strong he disappointed us with the disclosure of some shameful weakness; at other times, when we were bowed down with a painful consciousness of his unfitness, he surprised us with his steadiness and self-command, and a revelation of reserved and unsuspected strength. With tremendous resource of stubbornness and pluck, with unwavering fidelity to his convictions and unfiring persistency in their advocacy, with endurance that knew no fatigue and obstinacy that never recognized defeat or entertained terms of compromise, he was chiefly great in the heat of political combat, and great beyond measure when physical courage was called into action, and the odds were against him. With none of the chances in his favor, and always heavily handicapped by his lack of training, and his infirmities of temper, he made his way steadily to the front, reaching and holding through a boisterous period, and against the stormiest opposition that ever beset a President, the first place in the land.

News Items.

Four hundred hogsheads of crooked whiskey, hidden during the raid in July, have been captured by the revenue agents in Chicago.

Another pest is announced. It is said that the crickets are swarming into Paradise Valley, Nev., in myriads, coming from North and West, and the farmers apprehend great damage to the crops by their devastation.

The returns from Kentucky still drizzle along, and nobody can tell the Democratic majority. As the Syracuse Journal suggests, when Kentucky gets a few more telegraphs to report its news, and schools to diffuse intelligence, the Republicans will stand a better chance.

The Rule with no Exceptions.

"Tell me friend, as you are bidden. What is hardest to be hidden. Fire is hard. The smoke betrays its place by day—by night its blaze. I will tell as I am bidden. FIRE is hardest to be hidden.

"I will tell as I am bidden! LOVE is hardest to be hidden. Do your best, you can't conceal it; Actions, looks, and tones, reveal it. I will tell as I am bidden. LOVE is hardest to be hidden.

"I will tell as I am bidden! POETRY cannot be hidden. Fire may smoulder, love be dead; But a poem must be read. Song intoxicates the poet: He will sing it, he will show it.

"He must show it, he must sing it. Tell the fellow then to bring it! Though he knows you can't hide it, 'Tis impossible to hide it. I will tell, as I am bidden. POEMS never can be hidden."

THE GEORGIA PILOT.

A FEW IDLE FREEDMEN AT THE BOTTOM OF IT.

[from the Utica Observer.]

NEW YORK, August 23.—A despatch from Augusta, Ga., dated yesterday, says the recent threatened trouble between whites and blacks, arose solely from an insane desire on the part of three or four idle turbulent negroes to gain notoriety and power, and being connected with semi-colored military companies they were thus enabled to draw many quiet and law abiding negroes into their plot. The negroes own that they have no grievances to redress and cannot tell or show any reason for the contemplated uprising. The prudent course of Gov. Smith in meeting the matter has tended to quiet the people, and all apprehensions of trouble are now over. He was greeted at the public meeting at Sandersville, Saturday, with enthusiasm by both blacks and whites, of Washington county. He addressed them, urging the blacks to be industrious and law abiding and the whites to be calm and forbearing.

Wit and Humor.

The only time that a boy ever has any idea of reforming and becoming good, is when he is freed among the cherries by a lank farmer and a couple of mastiffs.

A very wealthy farmer has this "notis" posted up in his field: "If any man's or woman's cows or oxen gits in these here oats, his or her tail will be cut of as the case may be."

A good way to restore a man apparently drowned is to first dry him thoroughly inside and out, and then clap a speaking-trumpet to his ear and inform him that his mother-in-law's dead.

Josh Billings says; "There is one thing about a hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kackie much until after they have laid their egg. Sum folks are allus bragging and a-kackling what they are going tew do beforehand."

Here is a good business-like epitaph: "Herea lies Jane Smith, wife of Thomas Smith, marble cutter. This monument was erected by her husband as a tribute to her memory, and as a specimen of his work. Monuments of the same style, $250."

A boy in the suburbs tried to ascertain the other day the soundness of the proverb, "Birds of a feather flock together." He plucked the old rooster down to a single tail feather, and it didn't flock at all, but went and hid under the barn. This is another old saw smasher.

"Are you an Odd Fellow?" "No, sir, I've been married for a week." "I mean do you belong to the order of Odd Fellows?" "No, no; I belong to the order of married men." "Mercy how dumb! Are you a Mason?" "No, I'm a carpenter by trade." "Worse and worse! Are you a son of Temperance?" "Bother you, no; I'm a son of Mr. John Brown.

An Irishman being annoyed by a howling dog in the night, jumped out of bed to dislodge the offender. It was in the month of January, when the snow was three feet deep. He not returning his wife ran out to see what was the matter. There she found her husband in his night suit, his teeth chattering, and his whole body almost paralyzed with cold, holding the struggling dog by the tail. "Holy mother Pat," said she, "what wud ye be after doin'?" "Hush! don't ye see? I'm tryin' to fraze the d—d baste!"

MY LOVE OF LONG AGO.

I am dreaming of my darling,
And the days that long are past,
Sever not the blissful seeming,
All too bright and fair to last.
For the long-forgotten memories
Into deathless blossoms grow,
As before me floats the vision,
Of my love of long ago.

Softly breathe, oh, blushing roses!
Hold your breath of fragrance sweet,
Lest your breathing wake my slumber,
And my dream be incomplete.
Cease your warbling, robin redbreast?
Thrushes, chant your matins low,
Let me hear the old, old story,
From my love of long ago.

In the rosy hours of Spring-time,
I had given her my heart,
But a fate both stern and cruel,
Bade our paths lie far apart.
Only in the great Hereafter,
I may learn why this is so;
Why, through life, I have been parted
From my love of long.

Though three times I have been wedded
And each time I thought my wife
Was the best of noble women,
And the glory of my life;
Tho' my eyes have lost their brightness
And my head is crowned with snow,
Yet I never have forgotten
My love of long ago.

From Peterson's for September.

Supposed Loss of a Steamer.

LONDON, Sept. 9. 1875.

The steamer Martin Wiener, from Shields for Hamburg, is believed to have been lost with all her crew.

Why is the world like a piano?
Because it is full of sharps and flats.

"Are there any fools in this city?"
asked a stranger of a newsboy.
"No; do you feel lonesome?" was the reply.

Query for Naturalists—if a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, is a mole on the face worth two on the ground?

Married people will have no difficulty in getting along well if they always keep too bears in the house—bear and forbear.

It is easy enough to imitate Josh
Billings—thus: Doant karry eggs in your cottale pockit. Eggs aint good after they've bin sot on awhile.

Among the "conditions of sale"
by an Irish auctioneer was the following: "The highest bidder to be the purchaser, unless some gentleman bids more."

There is a Scotch looking-glass maker who heads his advertisements with a quotation from Burns: "The giftie gie us to see oursels as ithers see us."

The only people in these parts whose habitations have marble fronts, are those who are the least given to boasting and vain display.
They occupy the cemetery grounds.

A lady having been ordered by her physician to a warmer climate,
her husband remarked that if there was a warmer climate than he had been living in since his marriage he was not aware of it.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.

There is no country on the face of the globe, where the young men need the counsel and advice of the mature in years and mind, so much as in America.

In this country, most men have to make themselves, and it is of the utmost importance, that a young man should, while the mind is plastic and developing, cultivate those maxims, which time has proved to be the essential elements of success.

The excellent sayings of "Poor Richard," should be carefully studied and digested, although they may seem homely and common at first view, a more careful analysis of their meaning will prove their excellence. It is not sufficient that truthful maxims should be read, they should be committed to memory, and carefully consulted on all occasions; by so doing you can more readily arrive at just conclusions and will not be compelled to repent at leisure for actions hastily performed.

There is another matter it would be well for young men to consider. Birds of brilliant plumage are seldom good singers, the plain brown dress of the robin covers the finest songster in the feathered kingdom. We are, therefore, led to conclude that fine clothes are not a sure indication of worth and intelligence. A decent respect for the eyes of others, should always be maintained, and this is best accomplished when our garments are clean, and paid for.

Never struggle to keep in the front rank of fashion, but limit your desire for finery within your means. Do not give much time or reflection to what you shall wear, but rather to the acquisition of knowledge, that by its use, you may be able to get on in the world and secure the respect and esteem of your fellow men; and lastly, never get in debt for your living or clothes but keep all of your expenses within your income. It is very difficult to catch up if you get behind; handicapped by debt, a young man's progress in life will be retarded and his waking hours woefully embittered by the reflection that others have a right to expect of him what he is unable to perform.

There is more true pleasure in plodding about in homespun, and cow hide boots that are paid for, than shining in diamonds with the officers of the law upon your track.

LOCAL.

How do you like our new dress.

New Goods! New Goods! at E. Alexander's.

Go to Mary Woodrow's for your fall supply of Millinery Goods.

FLANNELS and shirtings a speciality, at E. Alexander's.

A FRESH supply of "Stick'em Tight" fly paper just received at Earl's.

ALL persons indebted to E. Alexander, are requested to call and settle at once.

THE new style of pantaloons to be worn this fall will be large enough to "tie-back."

THE attention of the young people is called to our fine stock of Autograph Albums which we have just received.

WHAT a great improvement that new side-walk is, on the upper end of Main street. Let the good work extend up the hill.

MARY WOODROW has just received the finest assortment of Fall Millinery goods ever offered in these parts. Give her a call.

CAMP MEETING on the old grounds at DeKalb Junction will commence Monday September 20th and close on the following Saturday. Rev. I. S. Bingham, D. D., presiding.

J. K. HALE has just received another lot of new Boots & Shoes, among them some nice gaiters without insoles. They will not rip or wear holes through the hose. All will be sold at the lowest price for cash.

THE Observer says: "Woman's fashionable among, the 'pull-back,' is soon to be superseded by the new Parisian hosiery now coming into vogue. Before long the pretty dears will be coming out with stockings ruffled with lace, and embroidered in every imaginable design, and costing only $13 a pair." We would like to ask the editor how we are to know when that time arrives.

THE Fall term of the Hermon Graded School is now in the third week, and seems to be in a very prosperous condition. The total number of scholars in attendance is 144. The Faculty are as follows: N. W. Bartlett, Academic, Julia Dixon, Secondary, and Jennie C. Bartlett, Primary. These teachers are competent to fill the places that are assigned them, and are earnestly working for the interests of their pupils.

NOTICE.—Call and pay your School Tax, or not grumble at paying five per cent.

J. K. HALE, Collector.

READ THIS.—Thomas Thornhill Jr., and William Lampson, have formed a co-partnership, and are now ready to receive all orders for threshing. They have a ten-horse power threshing machine, which is far more advantageous to farmers than the two horse power.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Geo. A. Healey and Mr. Theron Farnsworth, two well known and highly respected young men of our town, have purchased a Drug Store, with a Job Printing Office attached, at Williamstown N. Y. With George as druggist, and Theron as "boss" printer, we have no doubt as to their success. They are genial fellows and are sure to command the respect of all with whom they come in contact. With best wishes for their future success and prosperity we bid them an affectionate farewell.

THE JOLLY HUNT.—On Friday evening last, three jovial hunters reported at the Hermon House. At the sound of the huntsman's horn, their jolly neighbors assembled to do honor to the occasion. The game being produced proved to be a fine deer, which was received with hilarious shouts. The skillful Doctor amputated the head, in this he was assisted by one who, although not skilled in surgery, knows all about the head. The authorities were there to see that there was no infringement of the game laws. The jaws of the deers head became an object of interest, and in distinguishing molar from incisors the brain of the Dentist got muddled. The young Druggist too, had a share in the fun and demonstrated that all those years have not passed without learning some new tricks if they are not so cunning. The little grocer buzzed about in hopes that jerked venison would be in the market, and there was a sharp inquiry for Buckskin gloves by the general merchant. But the hunting lawyer was enough for the sharp representatives of commerce, so they all caromed on the bar where they were cheerfully met by Boniface who aroused their faculties with a social nip. Thus the night drove on, and the sleeping mechanics were called from their repose to assist in the general jolification.

It is not often that hunters receive such a rousing ovation.

LOVE'S RIDDLE.

She plucked a rose and idly paled
The crimson leaves apart
I whispered, "Tell me why it is That is like my heart."
"What know I of your heart?" said she;
"Your riddle is too deep for me."
"Because my heart was full of hopes
As leaves upon your rose;
You scatter them from day to day,
As now you scatter those;
And soon my poor heart, stripped of all,
Forgotten, as the rose, must fall."
Ah! crimson cheeks and bashful eyes;
My riddle was so plain;
She stooped and gathered from the ground
The fragrant leaves again.
"Ah, love!" I cried, "and can it be Sweet hopes may yet return to me?"

MISCELLANY.

THE GULF STORM.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—A special dispatch from Galveston reports that the town of Vetasco, Texas, is entirely swept away, but no lives were lost. A letter from the steamship and railroad agent at Indianola says that 200 houses were swept away, and the steamship and railroad wharf, which cost $200,000, is almost a total wreck. From 150 to 200 lives were lost.—Tribune.

Collision on Lake Huron.

DETROIT, Sept. 23.—The schooner E. R. Williams collided with and sunk the schooner Egan last night at midnight, near Thunder Bay Light, Lake Huron. The Egan was coal laden. The Williams was wheat laden. The latter was considerably damaged forward. Two men were lost on the Egan, the captain's son and a sailor.

There is a farmer on Long Island who has a hog so fat that you have to throw a potato into its pen to find out which the head end is.

A boy who was very hungry was taken to a tavern and told to eat enough for to-day and to-morrow, too. "And how about yesterday?" he asked, innocently.

"How much did he leave?" said a lady, on learning the death of a wealthy citizen. "Everything" responded the lawyer; "he didn't take a farthing with him."

SHORT CUT TO THE DEPOT.

It is well known to the citizens of Hermon and other towns interested; that only four miles of space separates us from the Depot at De Kalb Junction. The route usually traveled, is six miles. In the summer season when the roads are good, you do not notice the distance, but in mud time, and through snow storms, a difference of two miles, or nearly that, is an important consideration.

Some of the inhabitants in De Kalb are moving to have a road laid out from the corners near Sylvanus Stiles straight to the Junction, now this is what the inhabitants of Hermon, Russell, Edwards and Fine need, and now is the time to second the efforts of those in the town of De Kalb who are willing to incur the expense of a new road. We call the attention of our readers to this subject, hoping that a general interest may be awakened and united efforts be made to secure so important an improvement. We should move in a mass, as it is a subject that should interest every property owner, who make De Kalb Junction the Depot.

Many are waiting for Mr. Burnham to move in the matter, we fail to see why he is more interested than others, indeed we should not be surprised if he would prefer, for the benefit of his Stage line, to have the route remain as it is. But as his contract for carrying the mail does not last forever, and he has the same general interest in the improvement with the rest of the inhabitants, we do not look for any opposition in that quarter.

Let there be a meeting of our citizens, and a committee appointed to solicit material aid, and to confer with the inhabitants of De Kalb and locate the road without delay.

D. A. Moore is the Republican nominee for Senator in the St. Lawrence and Franklin District. The mode of appointing delegates to the Convention has been changed so that instead of three from each Assembly District, making twelve in all, each town has one delegate, and each incorporated village of 1500 inhabitants and each ward of Ogdensburg one each. This makes 54, 37 from St. Lawrence county and 17 from Franklin.

You will find Fashionable Dress Goods fresh from the market at J. W. Cleghorn's.

A beautiful assortment of Water-proofs in all colors, Cheap, at E. Alexanders.

A nice assortment of Hats and Caps which will be sold very cheap just received at E. Alexanders.

The latest novelties in Ladies Collars and Neck-ties just received at E. Alexanders.

Ladies go to J. K. Hales and buy some French Dressing, it will make old shoes look like new ones.

J. W. CLEGHORN has for sale Ladies and Childrens Dress, Cloak and Sacque patterns in endless varieties.

CALL on W. G. Brown and A. L. Cole, if you want to sell your Oats for CASH. 10,000 bushels wanted.

DR. COLE is going to New York this winter to take a special course in Surgery. He will return March 1st, 1876.

MR. E. H. GREEN showed us a potato he raised in his garden that weighed 2 lbs. 14oz. Beat that if you can.

THEY say J. W. Cleghorn is selling goods cheaper than anyone else, still he is not selling at cost or about to leave town.

WE are glad to say that the good work on the upper end of Main street has extended up the hill, and a sober man can walk that sidewalk without breaking his neck.

LARGE arrival of Boots & Shoes at Browns. You will consult your interest by calling and seeing his stock.—You will be sure to buy.

A FEW Buffalo and Lap Robes just received, which I will sell at a very small percentage. Come early and get the first chance.

E. Alexander.

It is astonishing to what a great state of perfection the world has arrived. The latest thing out is a hen that lays her eggs dated New York State claims this Phenomenon.

If a young lass, on carefully sitting down should bound from her seat as if struck by the electric current from a galvanic battery, you may make up your mind she wears a pin-back, and that the pin stood on its head.

WE learn with regret, that our old townsman Jacob Bechhold has made arrangement to move to Gouverneur about the middle of October. We shall miss the cheerful countenance of Jake and the omnipresent Sig very much. We wish them well in their new field of operation. Jacob is giving some great bargains in goods and other property, and we advise those wishing to buy goods, to give him a call at once as his time in Hermon is short.

LOST.—Sometime between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward has been offered for they are gone forever.

HEAR YE.—My Pocket Bank is empty and my creditors are calling for their pay. If those having long standing accounts will call and settle, they will do me a great favor and themselves no harm.

J. K. Hale.

REV. J. S. LEE.—It is nearly three years since this good man commenced preaching in Hermon, and now the question is before us, shall he continue to minister to our Spiritual wants, or shall we bid him good bye at the close of his year.

It is true that there are many in this community who are not permitted by an alwise Providence, to enjoy the simple faith, he so eloquently proclaims; and no doubt it is well that this is so, for as the Poet says; "the fear of hell is a hangmans rope to keep the wretch in order."

Let those who desire to retain the services of Mr. Lee in Hermon another year, come to the front, and substantially manifest their wishes the next time he preaches here, and it is possible that arrangements may be made to supply this place with the pure and unadulterated Gospel of Peace.

STONE BRIDGE.—This structure is nearly completed, and the arch now supports itself.

The authorities of the town have come well up to the mark, and have constructed strong wing walls which add much to the beauty of the structure as well as being a material strength and protection to the bridge.

The work has been well done and great pains taken by the enterprising contractor to make every part of the work strong and durable. Indeed he seems to have lost sight of his personal interest in his desire to make the job a creditable one. We have heard but one expression of opinion concerning the bridge, and that is; that it looks much better than could have been expected.

This bridge will be the pride of Hermon, and will long stand a monument of the enterprise of the people and contractor.

HOSLEY.—Died at his residence in Russell, Sept. 20, 1875. Ira A. Hosley, in the 60th year of his age.

GRIFFIN.—Died very suddenly at his residence in Hermon Village, John Griffin. Age, 85 years.

MIGNONETTE.

The garden mourns for beauty lost
Through all its walks and ways,
And winds in passing hold lament
For dear dead summer days.
For faded flowers that lowly lie
With ghostly leaves,—and yet
They find there fingers fresh and sweet
Some blooms of mignonette.

All brilliant flowers are pale and dead
And sadly droop to earth,
While pansies chill in velvet robes
Court life but little worth;
But in these dark October days
That wander wild and wet,
Our thoughts are winged to summer hours
On breath of mignonette.

Along the garden ways of life
Droop withered hopes to-day,
Bloom that we thought were immortal
Have faded quite away;
But on the graves of friendships dead
Some frail sweet flowers are set,
Whose autumn fragrance thrills the heart
Like breath of mignonette.

The Extreme Penalty.

Boston, October 8.—George W.
Pemberton was hanged this morning in the Charles Street Jail for the murder of Mrs Margaret E.
Bingham in East Boston on the 22d of March. Pemberton met his death calmly, without being stolid.
His death was instantaneous, and was caused by concussion of the brain or shock of the fall. At 10:30 the doors were opened and execution was over, the whole time having been exactly one hour. The body was given to his wife, and this afternoon it will be buried privately.—Observer.

NOCTURNE.

Come with thy shadows, gentle Night!
And fold us in thy blissful calm;
Our eyes grow weary with the light,—
Shed o'er them thy refreshing balm!

From hill and vale, from wood and plain,
Thy pensive music, soft and low,
Steals o'er us like some sweet refrain,
So restful in its murmurous flow.

Come, cloudless Night! Unbar thy gates
That hides the wonders of the skies;
Unlock the starry realm that waits
To gleam on our uplifted eyes.

For noise and tumult fill the day,
In all our busy rounds of care;
Let the free spirit soar away,
And wander in these fields of air.

Come, holy Night; we walk alone,
And Wisdom whispers in the ear;
How winning is the heavenly tone!
How blest the soul that blends to hear!

MISCELLANY.

The Homeless Band of Temeculas.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—A petition is being circulated in San Bernardino, San Diego, and Los Angeles Counties of this State, addressed to Senator Sargent, asking for an adjustment of the affairs of the Temecula Indians, and the purchase of reservation lands for them. D. A. Dryden, Indian Agent has returned to Los Angeles from the Indian country. He reports that there is no eligible Government land on which to place the Indians. He recommends the purchase of the Temecula Rancho for them.—Tribune.

Relative beauty—A pretty cousin.
The dentist's epitaph—"He is filling his last cavity."

The good little bootblack's epitaph—Gone to shine among the angels.

The reason why we admire pretty feet is because, "All's well that ends well."

A new pattern of stove is wanted. One that don't have to be "put up" every fall.

A wit once asked a peasant what part he acted in the great drama of life. "I mind my own business," was the reply.

When'er we take our walk abroad, and some limping girls we see, let's cry aloud with one accord,
"Don't tie below the knee."

"Keep 'em alive boys, keep 'em alive; dead men pay no bills," is what an old doctor said to a couple of young scions just entering into practice.

"Do they ring two bells for school?" said a father to his ten year old daughter who attends the high school. "No, pa, they ring
one bell twice," she replied.

"Say!" said the city youth to the modest countryman, "got the hay-seed out o' your hair yet?" "Wall," was the deliberate reply, "I judge not from the way the calves run
arter me."

One day, at a farmhouse, a wag saw an old gobbler trying to eat the strings of some night-caps that lay on the grass to bleach. "That," said he, "is what I call an attempt to introduce cotton into Turkey."

THE VILLAGE SCHOOL.

Now that it has been fully determined to place the academic department of the village school upon a basis, that will entitle it to the consideration of the board of Regents of the State, it becomes the duty of every citizen in the district to aid and assist the board of Education to consummate this much desired object.

One way to assist them is to look over your libraries at home, and see if there are any books in them that have ever been the property of the district. There is a large number of volumes missing from the District Library, most of which are no doubt quietly resting with the books of the inhabitants of the district. These books now possess a real money value when returned to the District Library and will save so much tax if returned immediately.

Another way to assist the district would be for those who have volumes that are in good order and suitable for a District Library to bring them forward and donate them to the District. In doing this you but give to yourselves as the books in the Library will always be accessible to every person in the District, and most families have some suitable books that they have thoroughly perused and would hardly miss them from their libraries. James K. Hale is the present custodian of the District Library and to him all books belonging to, or designed for it, should be delivered immediately.

From one little apple seed, planted eight years ago by Mr. Gould, of Plymouth, N. Y., five pecks of apples were gathered from the tree this season.—Observer.

Masonic dance at the Hermon House, Christmas. All are invited to attend.

Look Here! Call at E. Alexander's new store while in town. It will pay you.

Go to Spalding's for Winter Caps, Scarfs, and Nubias. New stock just received.

If you have any books belonging to the District Library, return them immediately.

Mrs. A. W. Weeks has increased her facilities for dress making. See her "ad" in another column.

You can buy your Groceries cheaper at Spalding's cash store than at any other. Give him a trial.

Great excitement! The nicest assortment of Crockery and Glass-ware just received at E. Alexander's

Geo. Rasbach has opened a new Photograph Gallery over E. Alexander's new store. With everything new he feels confident that he can do first-class work. Give him a call

Any one wishing to purchase an Organ should call at Cyrus Fuller's house and see a very fine specimen of the Burdett Organ which was sent there by F. W. Sadds of Gouverneur, for inspection.

Mary Woodrow has refreshed her stock of Millinery with the latest and most fashionable goods, for the fall and winter trade. Give her an early call. You will also find at her shop, quite a nice assortment of Dry Goods which William Woodrow will sell at prices that will compete favorably with any store in this vicinity.

DISOLUTION.—The firm of Scofield & Sheldon has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The books of the firm will be found at the upper Mill, and the accounts may be settled with either of the former partners. All persons having unsettled accounts with Scofield & Sheldon, are requested to call and settle immediately. Business at the Grist Mill will be continued by Theodore W. Sheldon, and at the upper Mill by G. V. Scofield. G. V. SCOFFIELD, THEODORE W. SHELDON.

IN THE LINE.

The daisies star the summer grass;
And, with the dancing leaves at play,
A low tide breeze the breezes pass,
In pleasant music, all the day.

I love the sweet, sequestered place,
The gracious roof of gold and green,
Where arching branches interlace,
With glimpses of the sky between.

I see the drooping roses trail
From tangled hedgerows to the ground
I hear the chanting swell and fall,
Of fond love-lyrics, all around.

And here, adown the shady walk,
In days divine now passed away,
Entranced, I listened to the talk,
That ever held my heart in sway.

In days when birds began to sing,
Because they found the earth was fair;
In halcyon days of happy spring,
None aught but us our joys to share.

But pleasure past is present pain;
The petals of the rose are shed;
The piercing thorns alone remain;
I live to sorrow for the dead.

ternal old doll of yours, Mabel?"
"O, aunt, it has been the desire of all my life to hide it from her that she's a doll. I hope she didn't hear you!"

Why is the letter R very unfortunate? Because it is always in trouble, wretchedness and misery,
it is the beginning of riot and ruin,
and is never found in peace, innocence or love.

Grumbled a Danbury man stumbling about in his wood-house the other night: "Axe gone, saw gone, buck broken and Chandler in the Cabinet—what's the use trying to live, any way?"

"What can I do to make you love me more?" asked a youth of his girl the other evening. "Buy me a ring, stop eating onions, and throw your shoulders back when you walk," was the reply.

"My son," said a stern parent to a seven-year-old hopeful. "I must discipline you. Your teacher says you are the worst boy in school."
"Well, papa," was the reply, "only yesterday she said I was just like my father."

John Henry had a guest to dinner the other day, and during a pause in the conversation the infant terrible spoke up: "I wish I was you." "Do you, little boy, and why do you wish you were me?"
"Cos you dont get your ear pinched when you eat vittles with your knife"

HERMON TAX LEVY.

The Board of Supervisors for the county of St. Lawrence closed their session on Saturday last.

The amount of the State tax for this county was about $10,000.00 less than last year. The amount of county war bonds provided for in excess of last year, and the expenses of taking the Census, together make the county and State tax about the same as last year.

The amount of tax for the town of Hermon this year is $6391.97 last year it was $4910.24; increase of expenses over last year $1481.73; raised for Highway purposes this year $2052.91; raised for Lockup $200.00; leaving town expense proper $263.00. Our assessment Roll was equalized the same as last year practically.

There were four towns in the county that assessed at full value, the excess of Real Estate in these four towns, over last year was fairly divided among the other towns, which will add to our Roll although it does not affect the tax. On the whole Hermon has reason to be satisfied with this exhibit.

Another Fire Engine Gone to Smash.

A vigorous effort was made to raise by subscription, funds to purchase a fire Engine for Hermon Village. It went on swimmingly for a time, until the Liberals had been approached, then came the tug, all anxious to have a fire Engine, and willing that their neighbors should pay for it. So much of this willingness was encountered that the subscription list sought to hide its face in a friendly stove and disappeared just as the property in this village did on the 27th of last April, and will again, unless some more sure method than subscription is adopted to procure some means for extinguishing fires.

BLACK HILLS

are played out and the undersigned has been looking over the markets and finds goods so very low that he has concluded to leave the

to their native Savages, and go into business again, and give the people of Hermon and vicinity an opportunity to purchase goods bought at the present low prices. My goods are fresh, new, and bought since the late decline in market, bought for ready cash, and I shall give my customers the full benefit of the low prices.

These goods are not bought to remain on the shelves, they were bought to sell, and I am just the fellow who will sell them. I believe in quick sales, and small profits. The great decline in market on

LOCAL.

THANKSGIVING to-morrow all day.

Mr. & Babcock have a fine lot of Brackets and Wall Ornaments for Christmas.

Persons of good tea will find a fine article at E. E. Brown's, so they that have tried it.

Mr. HALE has just received a nice lot of winter shoes which he is selling very low for cash.

The largest stock of Sugar in town can be found at C. H. Little's and prices lower than the lowest. Call and see.

J. K. HALE has got the Pure Gum Boots, which will wear as long as three pair of the common Rubber Boots.

J. B. PICKET & Co., have just received 500 barrels of choice Apples and Cider which they will sell cheap for cash.

Do not walk on the side of your feet but go to J. K. Hale's and get the Lyon's Metallic Stiffener, which will prevent your boots from running over.

THE new bakery will commence operations the first of next week. Everyone must be on hand to get the first loaf of Bakers Bread ever made in Hermon.

C. H. Little is selling goods from 10 to 20 per cent cheaper than any store in Hermon. Call and get his prices before buying Boots, Shoes, Groceries, Crockery &c.

BEAR this in mind. Geo. Little can accommodate you with Oysters at any hour of the day. He receives fresh supplies by every train, and remember he will not be under sold by anyone.

PROF. J. S. LEE, will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday, (Nov. 28th) at half past 2 P. M., on "Universalism in the early Christian Church." All inquirers are invited to attend, and give him a candid hearing.

OTIS Earle will offer his entire stock of Dry Goods, at Auction, commencing Saturday evening, Nov. 27th. This sale will be positive and will continue every evening (Sundays excepted) until sold. Come one and all, and buy goods at your own prices. This Auction will be in Green & Babcock's new store. East Side of Church Street.

NOTICE.—On and after December 8th, All of my accounts made previous to October 1st, 1875, and which remain unpaid, will be left in other hands for immediate collection JAMES H. ALEXANDER. Hermon, N. Y. 24, 1875.

A BIG EGG.—Milton Rundell of Hermon presented us with a mammoth egg, the other day. It measures 8 inches around in the smallest place and weighs 52 drachms. It is the production of a small native fowl. Milton ought to be proud of that noble hen.

OBITUARY.—Robert Watson of Edwards, died on Sabbath morning November 21st, at his residence. Deceased was born in Scotland March, 1799, and was in the 77th year of his age. He emigrated to America, in the year 1819, located on a wild farm in Edwards, where he has ever since resided. He was a member of the F. A. Masons and of the M. E. Church, and has ever led a consistent and blameless life. He leaves a very large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his sudden death.

MASONIC PARTY.—The Hermon Lodge of Masons propose to give a party at the Hermon House Hall on Christmas eve. It will not be exclusively a Masonic party as all respectable persons, whether Masons or not, are invited to participate, and it is hoped that a very large number will attend. It is not expected that the members of the Fraternity will appear in Regalia, Hermon Lodge could not set the example, as all their jewels and Regalia was burned. Each Mason will bring the three precious Jewels, which will be quite enough to adorn and distinguish the Brethren.

I AM receiving daily by Express, Oysters in cans and bulk. By buying your Oysters of me you will be sure to get fresh goods every time. C. H. Little.

PERIGO—OFFEE—Married Nov. 14, 1875, by Rev. C. Phelps, Edwin A. Perigo of St. Lawrence, Jefferson Co. N. Y., and Ella A. Coffee of Hermon.

RISLEY—NICKERSON—Married at the residence of the bride's father, Nov. 16, 1875, by Rev. C. Phelps, August W. Risley of Hermon, and Maryett Nickerson of Canton, N. Y.

PUTMAN—ROSELEY—Married at the residence of the bride's mother, Nov. 18, 1875, by Rev. C. Phelps, Charles B. Putman and Addie A. Roseley, of Russell N. Y.

Some people will growl about fashion,
And prate at its follies, but then,
It is law; for Shakspeare hath said it,
"Wears out more apparel than men."
"Out of fashion!"—the world will ignore you.

And call you a dawdy, a tack;
Then a hint to the wise is sufficient—
Pin'em back, girls—pin'em back.

Some girls, like old Susan B. Anthony,
Strong-minded, may stickle for rights,
And dressed out in bo'd Bloomer costume
Have made themselves hideous frights;
But these are not rules—they'er exceptions,

And ought to be burned at the rack;
Who cares if you can't climb a ladder;
Pin'em back, girls—pin'em back.

Long trails and low necks had their season.

Shirts gathered in frills and gored down
The train-litter, bustle and sweeper, Hoops large and small both wore the crown.

Have your own sweet way, pretty misses.

Let impertinents stare in a pack;
The world moves at your smiles and
your kisses,

Do just as you please—pin 'em back.

"To-day" is an age of progression,
Who cares for gossip—such stuff;
No odds if you can't step two inches,
Sit sideways, 'tis easy enough;
And 'twill show off your form and your figure.

But at this you all have a knack;
Have your own pretty, sweet ways and notions,

Pin 'em back, dear girls; by Jove, pin
'em back.

BANK IN HERMON.

We feel to congratulate the citizens of Hermon upon the many substantial improvements that have been made in the village since the fire. Elegant Brick fronts gladden the eye as you pass up Church street, and the hum and confusion of prosperous business, has superseded the desolation of April 27th.

So permanent do all of these improvements appear that Cautious Capital has dared to come among us, and now we are to have a Bank, a real live Bank, with a capital of Fifty Thousand Dollars, under the management of Benj. F. Lynde and D. S. Lynde.

This Bank will commence business about the first of January next under the title of B. F. Lynde & Son's Bank of Hermon.

Of course it will not, nor cannot be a Bank of Issue, but will transact all the legitimate Banking business, (except issuing bills) that is customary for the Banks in this county to do, so far as opportunities are presented.

It will be a safe place of deposit for those who do not have immediate use for their money, and will be a great convenience for the business men of this place—and other places lying adjacent thereto.

Business in Hermon village has greatly revived of late. The merchants have had something to do with this favorable change.

They are selling goods at prices that, upon any other basis than ready cash, would ruin a millionaire. Our street on Saturday and Monday, presented a very animated appearance. Carriages, Sleighs, teams and people succeeded each other in endless profusion. Judging from the numerous and large bundles carried by the people, our merchants must have done a thriving trade.

THE MASONIC DANCE.—The Masonic Dance to be held Dec. 24th at the Hermon House, bids faire to be a success, we hear from every direction, in this vicinity, of those who are intending to attend.

It will be a very enjoyable affair and it is hoped that it may be largely attended both by Masons, and also by those who have not investigated the mysteries of the popular order.—Let no one stay away because it is a Masonic dance as all respectable persons, whether Masons or not, are invited to attend.

CONGRATULATION.—Last Thursday evening Mr. F. H. Coughlan took to himself a better-half in the person of Miss. Lucy M. Burt, daughter of David Burt of Russell N. Y. We heartily congratulate all parties concerned. Fred has ever been a moral and energetic young man, while Lucy is a universal favorite of all with whom she comes in contact. Our sincere wishes are that their married life may ever be as happy as it has apparently commenced, may their pathway strewn with flowers of the loveliest hue.
